

Frank is a fourth generation resident of Sparks, NV and learned to ski through Sparks High School's PE program.

After graduating from Sparks High, he attended UNR majoring in Accounting and Computer Information Systems. He lived in Japan for two years as a missionary for his church and speaks Japanese fluently.

Frank has 10 years of experience as an accountant working for CPA firms and 28 years of experience as a child development and nutrition counselor at the County Health Department.

Frank has a wife, two daughters and son-in-law. His entire family is passionate about the success of Sky Tavern. Both daughters are ski instructors and his son-in-law is a ski patroller by day and grooms the slopes at night. His wife volunteers in operations while the kids are on the snow.
