Randi Thompson – Sky Tavern Board Secretary

Randi Thompson has been a lobbyist at the Nevada legislature since 1993, representing primarily small business. She serves as State Director for the National Federation of Independent Business and is also CEO of the Northern Nevada Network, an exclusive CEO organization.

After graduating from Reno High and the University of Oregon with a BS in Journalism, she spent 10 years in Washington DC lobbying Congress.

Randi returned to Nevada in 1993 to run her own public and government relations consulting firm. She has been a campaign consultant to numerous elected officials, run for the legislature, and serves a PR & government affairs consultant to many companies in Northern Nevada.

Randi has served as a Trustee of the Reno Tahoe Airport Authority, serving as chair in 2010-2011. She also served on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of No. Nevada, the Food Bank Board of No. Nevada and served twice as the President of the Nevada Opera.

Randi has been skiing since age three, taught by her dad, Don “Snoshu” Thompson, who not only learned to ski at Sky Tavern from Marce Herz, but also taught skiing at Sky Tavern.
